

re-
oel,
19-0
ryn-
lan-

d 9-3
ywel
Chris
goal
d the
give
Dun-
rday.
dwydd
ch side
ot
er and
pped a
try as
r's un-

S

or higher
his con-

to move?

I AM
that
play
In a
to th
shoul
left out of

I fe
be co
All E
quic
I a
aga
hav
utoglass
for 200-mile
sid
yester-
h.

ry was also a 5-1
t rookie pro-
ond.
plays Mountjoy,
to on their last
the first was a 5-1
fth round of last
rix, the second a
le final of the Ten-

try side

h the team which
st league points of
weekend for Sa-
match against

It was a kick in the
the first half.
minutes, midway

Williams on his way to victory.

Davies so close

Bridgend's David Davies narrowly failed to become the third Welshman in a row to win the Castle Combe Formula Ford 1600 championship.

The final round ended in acrimony after Davies was forced out in an horrendous crash of the first lap.

SPORT IN BRIEF

Vernon's victory

Port Talbot's Vernon Davies staked his claim to be the fastest racing driver in Wales with a spectacular show on his way to victory in the Vauxhall Clubmans Sportscar Championship
race at the Welsh Motor Sports Centre at Pembrey
yesterday.

most grabbed a share of the points after the Swans went down at home.